

October 2020 – Newsletter No 6

With Linda Reeves, Motivational Facilitator & Coach
Welcome to Newsletter No 6.

An Invitation,

Are you a seeker, someone who is looking to find out more about themselves and keen to find something different to this reality of trauma, judgement, lack of awareness and limitations? If so, have you have come here to find more consciousness?

If that is a yes, please check out the amazing Access Bars to start with. I am happy to offer a session or a class to allow you the experience you are looking for.

I'm so grateful for everyone who is showing up for more Classes and looking for more Access Tools and Consciousness to be a part of their lives. We are still doing the Foundation Classes Online, and in the room if you would like to really make headway, I would recommend that you look at this 4 day off the charts Class after the 1 day Bars Class. Actually both Classes are Truly awesome and life changing!

How has covid treated you? Even though I had over 3 months off work not being able to put hands on, I was able to attend a course and learn more about online Classes and build a website. My realisation is to change, and add more connection with people all over the world with being online while no out of state travel is available.

With the weather starting to finally warm up after winter it was the first time today that I was able to go out and be comfortable with a short sleeve top on. It was still cold before that. We have had cold days for 1st week of October and finally the forecast temperature is starting to climb.

It was rose pruning day today as the sunshine was delightful. I've even managed to put in a very small vegetable garden at home and it is thriving.

BEING YOU – with Wendy Mulder of Brisbane Qld - Online.

On 3rd – 4th October we were so lucky to Wendy Mulder facilitating her BEING YOU – Adventures Class Online. This lady is amazing and..... Oh, by way, the Class was sooo potent. I'm so grateful that I got to be able to be a part of this Class. Thank you Carol Daynes for assisting in promoting for this Class.

Access®tools to start your day: ASK- Who am I, and what grand and glorious adventures am I going to have today? Then you can receive the awareness of what you require to be and do, for you the planet and consciousness? For me it is different every day.
